

Fall 10-20-1826

Letter to Dudley Chase

Philander Chase

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Letter to Dudley Chase" (1826). Philander Chase Letters. 644.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/644

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

My Dear Brother: Boston. 20 Oct - 1846
K. Ch. 261020

You know I am so busy as to have left me but a few minutes to write letters: yet to you and dear Olivia and all in N. h. and B. C. I do refrain from saying a few words. if it be but to say I am here, well - & hope these few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing."

Mr Little, Ellen's sister, accompanied me to this place and I am now at "Sister Greenleaf's" most kindly & hospitably entertained. I dined yesterday at Ben. Wiggins. I had much conversation about our friends in England.
Bp. Hobart's sermon and the Review of it by his quondam friend Mr H. A. Norris were, however the chief topics. This gentleman who once turned me from his door to please Bp. Hobart now abuses him most unmercifully for shirk the little man of controversy returns him quid pro quo.

What I most deeply regret is that they seem to be desirous of bringing ~~from~~ their respective countries & Churches into the quarrel. One could stand by & see these "Bull and Bull dog" ^{competitors} [a comparison which The little Bp. himself has chosen] fight without shedding many tears, but when they with their muddy sides and bloody mouths, would tarnish the garments of the Church and Country to which they pretend they are doing such true & laudable service, our grief becomes insupportable.

On touching this business our Friend Timothy Wiggins writes thus.

"I am sorry to say that it (Mr Morris's "review) is written in as bad spirit & with as bad "taste as the sermon itself. I do not think the "reply ~~is~~ approved by good Churchmen. Lord
"Bexley informed me a few days since that "he felt a warm interest in your proceedings
" & disapproved of those writings which prevented
"good feelings from being cultivated between the "people of the two kindred nations."

Some friends in this place seem to take a deep interest in the affairs of the Western Church and I think I shall stay till next Monday—Monday night if the Lord will I shall be in Hartford.

Your last gift (thru the hands of our Brother Barker) of 100 to our Seminary I received with the most sincere & heartfelt gratitude: add it to what you sent last winter to Mr. Rip for me, (also 100).— and what Oliver gave me 20. and Nathaniel 16. and Isaac 61. & Ellen 25.— thus—You have 100 of D.

100 }
61 & 25 }
20.0 }
25.0 }
16.0 }
$ 322.00

— May God ever bless you all and crown your works of love here be low with eternal treasures of his everlasting Kingdom!!

Remember me kindly to George and Eliza: and kiss my grand daughter many times for

Your loving most faithful & grateful Brother,
Philander Chase

Hon. D. Chase
20th Oct. 1826

Chadbourne's

Boston Oct 20

1826

Ammon

Randolph

The Hon. Judge Chase

[Red ink scribble]

[Red wax seal]
1826
OCT 20
11 10 PM

LAURA SMITH COLLECTION

Kenyon
College
Library